Dear Parents

On the holidays I have been to Turkey to visit my family friends and relatives. I went last year too but this time it was very different. New things were still coming out, the economy was going good, people are saving more and streets were full of people going around and you can’t get your eyes off the areas.

Lots of our parents are going to Turkey. It is disappointing have to go to Turkey during school days. Children’s school absences and school affects their students a lot. Please let the school know week before, when you are going to Turkey.

Next week, Monday, is curriculum day. At the same time we have our Parent teacher Interviews. Parents can ring office and choose the time that suits them.

I hope all is as you please

REMINDER:

⇒ Welcome back to school students. Hope everyone had a great holiday. Happily, the term has started and everyone should be organized for the term. We have a new teacher John Kole for grade 5/6’s. We welcome him to our school.

⇒ On Monday the 20th of July we have parent teacher interviews and it will be a pupil free day for students. Teachers have given out notes for the suitable time for parents. If you haven’t send it with your child, please contact school and try to get the time that suits you.

⇒ Next week on Thursday the 23rd of July we will be having a lunch order day. Teachers have given out notes. Please sign and return money in an envelope before the day.

⇒ Teachers have given out notes for school photos. Make sure you put the right amount into the envelope and send back to school before the day.

WELCOME BACK ALL

Thank you
We are learning about dinosaurs this term. We coloured pictures of different dinosaurs and displayed them in our class. It was FUN!!!!

Grade 1/2 made stuffed dinosaurs for art. Everyone had lots of FUN!!!!!!

This term grade 3 and 4 are having new friends in the class. You must be thinking who they are? They are the dinosaurs. Everyone is excited about this theme. Few children even brought some stuff for the classroom. GOOD JOB!!!
